OUR DAY

1893

We take Pleasure in Announcing that Important Improvements are to be made in OUR DAY in 1893.

1. A photogravure of some leading representative of Current Reform will appear in each number.
2. Special attention will be given to every topic of Reform touching the World's Fair.
3. Our contributing editor, Dr. Barrows, will see that the great subjects discussed in the World's Congress Auxiliary and the Parliaments of Reform, more than one hundred of which are already provided for, are duly noticed in OUR DAY.
4. The subjects discussed the coming year in OUR DAY are likely to be of even more commanding and permanent interest than ever before. Every effort will be made to give the periodical not only a national, but a cosmopolitan outlook.

The whole income of the Magazine will be devoted to the improvement of its various departments.

Our subscribers are requested to renew their subscriptions and induce others to subscribe.

OUR DAY reaches large numbers of college students, teachers, preachers, editors and other educated men, and is more and more quoted at home and abroad.

The Subscription Price is $2.50 per year; to Ministers and Students, $2.00 per year. Single Number, 25 cents; to Ministers and Students, 20 cts.

OUR DAY Publishing Co.,
28 Beacon St., Boston.

CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be designated the "AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY."

ART. II. This Society, being founded on the principle that all war is contrary to the spirit of the gospel, shall have for its object to illustrate the inconsistency of war with Christianity, to show its baleful influence on all the great interests of mankind, and to devise means for insuring universal and permanent peace.

ART. III. Persons of every Christian denomination desirous of promoting peace on earth, and good-will towards men, may become members of this Society.

ART. IV. Every annual subscriber of two dollars shall be a member of this Society.

ART. V. The payment of twenty dollars at one time shall constitute any person a Life-member.

ART. VI. The chairman of each corresponding committee, the officers and delegates of every auxiliary contributing to the funds of this Society, and every minister of the gospel who preaches once a year on the subject of peace, and takes up a collection in behalf of the cause, shall be entitled to the privileges of regular members.

ART. VII. All contributors shall be entitled within the year to one-half the amount of their contributions in the publications of the Society.

ART. VIII. The Officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor and a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than twenty members of the Society, including the President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members of the Board. All Officers shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed, and the Board of Directors shall have power to fill vacancies in any office of the Society. There shall be an Executive Committee of seven, consisting of the President, Secretary and five Directors to be chosen by the Board, which Committee shall, subject to the Board of Directors, have the entire control of the executive and financial affairs of the Society. Meetings of the Board of Directors or of the Executive Committee may be called by the President, the Secretary or two members of such body. The Society or the Board of Directors may invite persons of well known legal ability to act as Honorary Counsel.

ART. IX. The Society shall hold an annual meeting at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint, to receive their own and the Treasurer's report, to choose officers, and transact such other business as may come before them.

ART. X. The object of this Society shall never be changed; but the constitution may in other respects be altered, on recommendation of the Executive Committee, or of any ten members of the Society, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at any regular meeting.

THE PROVIDENT LIFE AND TRUST CO. OF PHILADELPHIA,

WAS ORGANIZED IN 1865 TO PROMOTE LIFE INSURANCE AMONGST FRIENDS AND OTHERS OF LIKE CAREFUL HABITS.

All of its Directors are members of the Society of Friends. It has never appeared in Court as a contestant of a Death Claim. It has never adopted a novel or speculative form of Insurance to attract business.

It has a Death Rate lower than that of any other Company.

It has also a very low Rate of Expense.

Low Death and Expense Rates result in low cost to the Insurer. Business in force over $90,000,000.

Its organization is the strongest, and its guarantee of future safe and successful management, is the greatest.
